Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of Intermediate Spanish I the students will do the following in the four basic skill groups:

Reading

Read and extract the most critical points from brief passages written for non-native speakers that incorporate basic structures and vocabulary taught in the previous course and the following new elements: imperfect tense of verbs, por / para, relative pronouns, present subjunctive and more advanced vocabulary.

Writing

Write an in-depth personal essay demonstrating correct usage of preterite and imperfect verbs in narration, the use of se in structures describing “unplanned events” and more advanced vocabulary.

Speaking

- Demonstrate the ability to manipulate verbs “on the fly” by responding to directed questions in class.
- Express personal opinions orally in response to questions assigned in previous classes.
- Converse with more than one student in small group activities.
- Create questions to elicit and introduce new information into conversations.

Aural Comprehension

- Demonstrate understanding of longer spoken passages that incorporate course grammar and vocabulary as spoken by native and non-native speakers at an increased speed through written and spoken responses.
- Respond correctly to questions in the target language about lessons and homework using both previous and new verb forms.
- Demonstrate ability to extract main ideas from passages that contain an increased amount of unstudied vocabulary.

Honors Outcomes

Honors classes (and the Honors Program) promote the following core values:

Community students will demonstrate civic engagement through Service Learning and exploration of local, national, and global communities.

Curiosity students will cultivate personal and intellectual curiosity through investigation, discussion, and scholarship.
